BUENOS AIRES

Buenos Aires is the perfect combination between the sophisticated European style and the passion of a South American city.

It is the city where tango was born and where football is lived more passionately. Its nightlife, exquisite wines and its excellent gastronomy turn Buenos Aires into a very attractive and fun city.

Day by Day / 1

Day 1 - Arrivals

Arrival in Buenos Aires & Transfer to selected hotel

ÚNICA staff will meet the group upon arrival for assistance and for the transfer to the selected hotel.

The transfer time from the airport to downtown would be between 40 minutes to 1 hour depending on traffic.

Day by Day / 1

Optional - Special welcome to Argentina

After some hours on a plane flying to your final destination, you arrive at the airport and well, your trip begins. But no one would think that a tango dancing couple will be waiting for you. Something local to start feeling the Argentinian spirit is the best idea!

These is just an option that can work, but there is no limit as Argentina has a wide and varied culture with plenty of wow factors to offer.

Day by Day / 1

Check in at selected hotel

Option 1 . Four Seasons Hotel

Located in the most exclusive area of Buenos Aires, this modern building joined with a luxurious Belle Époque mansion, is one of the best properties in the city.

It offers 97 spacious guest rooms and 49 luxury suites, including 7 one-of-a-kind suites in the adjacent Belle Époque- style mansion. Pick between the warm, comfortable tower accommodations, and the historic and romantic mansion. To relax enjoy the unique Roman-Style outdoor pool.

Day by Day / 1

Option 2. Alvear Icon hotel

Purposefully designed to allow guests to enjoy some of the most incredible views in all of Buenos Aires, The Alvear Icon Hotel combines elegance, excitement, and modernity in the heart of Puerto Madero.

Opened in 2016, the Alvear Icon has 159 luxurious guest rooms, featuring arabescato marble walls, warm-toned French and Italian fabrics, and sumptuous, inviting furnishings.

The hotel also offers guests a wide array of dining and drinking options, a fully equipped business center, beautiful pool and spa facilities, and a fitness center. Alvear Icon also boasts the impressive Convention Center, able to accommodate events with a capacity of up to 1,200 guests.

Day by Day / 1

Option 3. Park Hyatt Hotel

Situated in the fashionable Recoleta neighborhood of Buenos Aires, the Park Hyatt has raised the stakes for elegance and luxury in the city. Comprised of two buildings, a 17-story tower and a mansion, restored to its original 1930's splendor and connected by an underground art gallery, full of beautiful works by a variety of regional and world-renowned artists. The hotel also features classical gardens, providing guests a quiet respite from the hustle and bustle of modern Buenos Aires.

The hotel boasts 165 sumptuously appointed guest rooms, including 39 suites. With an array of amenities, including a world-class spa, a fitness center, events space for up to 350 guests, and several elegant dining and lounge options, there is something to cater to tastes of every guest at the Park Hyatt Hotel - recognized by Conde Nast as one of the 15 finest hotels in South America.

Day by Day / 1

PM Walking Tour

Option 1. Recoleta Walking Tour & coffee stop at traditional Cafe La Biela

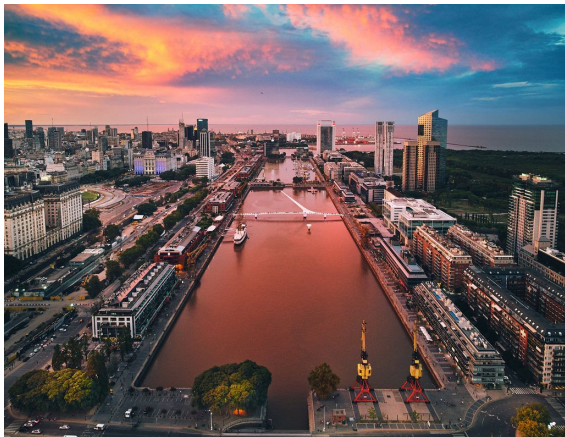

This wonderful district is known for its squares, parks, cafés and one of Argentina's most important cemeteries, which holds Evita Peron's much-visited grave.

Beautiful churches, cultural centers and galleries like the Palais de Glace, fill the neighborhood with culture and history. It has been referred to as the Paris of the Americas due to the many palaces and villas in the area, which also offers sophisticated restaurants, up-scale shopping and the city's most luxurious hotels.

Recoleta is an upmarket neighborhood defined by old-world prestige. The grand French architecture from the early 20th century combined with the the backgrounds of the residents as members of the European elite make it clear why Buenos Aires has become known as the Paris of South America.

Day by Day / 1

Option 2. Puerto Madero Walking Tour

The newest and most contemporary neighborhood of Buenos Aires, the development of Puerto Madero has brought Buenos Aires into the 21st century. Modern real estate and high-rise office buildings form a new kind of skyline, towering above an upscale promenade of riverfront bars and restaurants.

Just beyond the historical city center, Puerto Madero is steps away from the heart of downtown, but in atmosphere it is a world apart.

Day by Day / 1

Option 1. Welcome Dinner at selected hotel

Option 2. Welcome Dinner at Yacht Club

The Yacht Club is a unique venue located in Puerto Madero that has stunning views of the river and of the modern area of Buenos Aires.

It's an ideal venue for a welcome cocktail reception and private dinner, where we can include any type of entertainment to make it a fun night.

Day by Day / 1

Option 3. Welcome Dinner at Faena Art Center

The cultural hub of the Faena District, in downtown Puerto Madero, the Faena Arts Center provides an exceptional environment for your next event in Buenos Aires.

Situated in an old mill and revamped into a stunningly modern space, the Faena Arts Center offers contemporary style and cutting-edge technology in the heart of the city. It is perfect for gala dinners, product launching, or any type of special event. The Arts Center can accommodate events of over 1,000 guests, spanning its two floors, making it a sensational and unforgettable location for your next large event.

Entertainment Suggestions

Option 1. Malevo Malambo

Malevo, the story of the group that conquered US TV in pure Malambo. They qualified for the final stages of America's Got Talent, the fashion reality show in the United States, and dream of winning.

Who are these young guys from Argentina who shined in Hollywood?

Day by Day / 1

Option 2. Fuerza Bruta

Fuerza Bruta is an Argentine theater company that originated in 2003 as an independent project of the De La Guarda theater company, when it premiered its homonymous play in Buenos Aires. It is characterized by an experimental style, aesthetic innovation and large-scale scenic display.

The work was presented in Buenos Aires, Lisbon, London, Madrid, Barcelona and New York, among other cities.

Day by Day / 2

Day 2 - Highlights of Buenos Aires

Highlights of Buenos Aires with individual experiences.

Discover the interesting history of Buenos Aires through its most famous neighborhoods.

The tour starts at Plaza de Mayo, site of some of the city's most important historical events. From there you will visit San Telmo, the oldest residential neighborhood in Buenos Aires, where you can walk along its cobblestoned streets, experiencing its many shops and cafes. On Sundays there is a unique flea market.

Experience the magic and passion of tango in the barrio of La Boca, and the colorful Caminito Street - full of both dancers and souvenirs.

Then, visit the emblematic Boca Juniors stadium and museum and have a taste of the passion of Argentinian soccer.

Finally, visit Palermo and its most exclusive residential areas.

Day by Day / 2

Optional - Surprises appearances

Freestyle Football Entertainment

Freestyle Soccer entertainers performed their skills with many amazing brands and organizations throughout various events and promotions.

Freestyle Soccer is an awesome display of acrobatic and athletic moves performed with a soccer ball. The combination of creativity, imagination and ball control captures audience's attention everywhere. Our performances provide a dynamic presentation of soccer tricks and live entertainment to viewers of all ages globally.

Day by Day / 2

Group Lunch at Piegari Ristorante

Located in the exclusive Recoleta neighborhood, Piegari Ristorante has become something of a Buenos Aires institution.

In a city with such strong Italian ancestry, if a restaurant fails to serve excellent Italian cuisine, it won't last long. Piegari, now in its 25th year, has endured the test of time and continues to please porteños and tourists alike, with their twists on Italian classics.

From the mushroom risotto to the spinach and ricotta ravioli, the delectable cordi di chitarra, or any of their succulent seafood dishes, Piegari is sure to delight the taste buds of your group and provide a memorable dining experience.

Day by Day / 2

Individual Experiences

1. Tango Lessons at Typical Conventillo in La Boca

Argentine Tango is an interpretive, improvisational social dance that allows the dancers to develop a deep connection between themselves, the music, and the environment in which they are dancing.

You will be introduced to the Sultry Dance of Tango, learning the basic steps at a real conventillo in the traditional neighborhood of "La Boca", the place where the Tango history started.

2. Wine Tasting

In a country renowned for its excellent wines, few can match the superb quality.

Is your chance to sample some of the wineries best vintages, under expert tutelage, and in the luxury of a magnificent French-style mansion.

Day by Day / 2

3. Special Visit at Colon Theatre

Located in the heart of Buenos Aires sits Teatro Colón, one of the most famous opera houses on the planet. Ranked the third best opera house in the world, by National Geographic, it is consistently ranked in the top five concert venues on the Earth, thanks to its flawless acoustics.

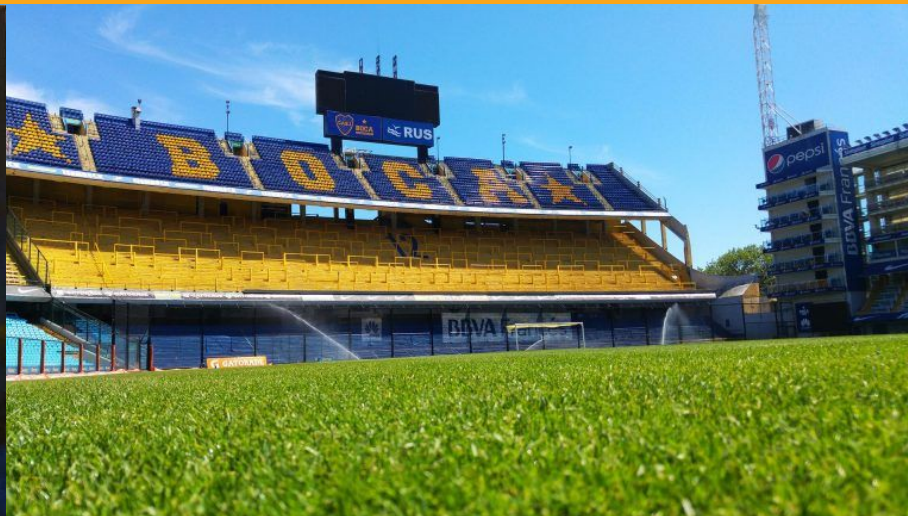

Guests who visit will have the opportunity to experience firsthand the beauty and majesty of the renovated theatre. The hour-long tour will teach visitors about the history of the theatre and allow them to explore behind the curtains of this treasured piece of Argentinian cultural heritage: into the underground tunnels, the practice rooms, and backstage.

4. Cooking Lessons at Espacio Azai

Cooking encourages teamwork and relax, allowing each participant to be oneself....and in a really nice loft characterized by its style, good taste and quality it becomes into a really enjoyable activity. The classes are participatory (hands-on) and include all the ingredients, aprons, equipment, tasting of all the dishes and recipes.

Day by Day / 2

5. Boca Juniors Stadium “Football Passion”

Argentine soccer is known worldwide, and so are one of the main teams Boca Juniors.

Experience how Boca Juniors XXI century gladiator battle for the entertainment and passion of the roaring crowds.

6. Fileteado Porteño Workshop

The fileteado porteño was born in Buenos Aires at the beginning of the 20th century as a popular decorative technique. It originated in wagon factories, where the first practitioners of the trade slowly developed it until it fully matured with shapes and color.

Because of its development as a spontaneous, popular art form, there is very little documentation on fileteado: there is no exact date that marks its birth, or a first artist for the genre. For this reason, the history of fileteado is formed from individual testimonies.

7. Silversmith workshop at Marcelo Toledo atelier

Marcelo Toledo, with only 37 years old, is one of the most recognized silversmiths of Argentina. He began selling his pieces in Caminito street, La Boca, but today his silver pieces adorn the mansions of international kings and stars.

At the moment, he is the only Argentine silversmith that managed to land in Broadway (he reproduced the Evita jewels, the musical where Elena Roger and Ricky Martin are the performers) thanks to his perfect creations.

8. Graffiti Tour

This experience reveal the extraordinary history of Buenos Aires' vibrant urban art culture. From its fiery political origins to the present day, where the city has become one of the world's most exciting locations for street art, you'll get an in-depth view into what makes this fascinating city explode with culture and creativity.

The tours are developed and conducted in close collaboration with local artists, enabling us to share their personal stories and inspirations, alongside some of the most spectacular art in the city.

Day by Day / 2

9. Bike Tour in the north part of the city

Enjoy a scenic bike ride around the city's most beautiful spots, organized by fun and professional guides.

Guides supply the bikes, helmets, child seats when needed, medical assistance, beverages, and snacks.

The tour includes rides through Recoleta, Puerto Madero, Palermo Parks, & Palermo Soho.

10. Helicopter tour of Buenos Aires

A unique way to discover Buenos Aires. There are three recommended options that differ in the length of the ride.

All of them take off from the Domestic airport and fly over Buenos Aires city and/or suburbs.

Day by Day / 2

Dinner at Cabaña Las Lilas Steakhouse

Located in trendy Puerto Madero, Cabaña Las Lilas offers simply one of the finest dining experiences to be found in Buenos Aires.

The restaurant prides itself on offering customers the highest quality cuts of meat, excellent wines, and the most attentive service in the city.

House specialties, such as bife de chorizo, asado de Tira, and Kobe beef burgers pair perfectly with their excellent Malbec selections; and combined with the warm, welcoming interior and commanding views of boats in the Marina, make it the perfect setting for your group dinner.

Day by Day / 3

Day 3 - Full Day Activities

Option 1. Glimpse of Pampa's Life at Estancia La Republica

Visit a beautiful and traditional Estancia, located in the countryside of Buenos Aires, 1 hour and 15 minutes away from the city.

Enjoy a welcome reception with delicious empanadas and local wine.

Get to know about the Argentinian "Gauchos" and their horses with an impressive equestrian show and then enjoy a typical Asado (Argentinian barbecue).

Day by Day / 3

Option 2. La Aguada Polo Club

Only 65 km away from Buenos Aires, near the town of Open Door, lays La Aguada Polo Clinic & Resort. A farm of 300 hectares, crossed by streams, with more than 250 horses in training, 5 polo fields and 2 stick & ball fields, where guests find the ideal lodging to enjoy a real farm life experience.

Day by Day / 3

Option 4. El Descanso Private Island

Enjoy a relaxing day surrounded by nature in the private island of El Descanso, located 40 minutes north of the city, in the Delta del Paraná.

In this exclusive spot some celebrities like Bono, Madonna and Will Smith have had a unique experience.

You would arrive via boat from Tigre's Fluvial Station and find beautiful gardens and flowers, enchanting wildlife, contemplative works of art, and total serenity.

A gourmet lunch in the garden with great wine would be part of the experience.

Day by Day / 3

Option1. Farewell Dinner at El Zanjón de Granados

Purchased as a derelict site in 1985, the owners of what is now El Zanjón de Granados had no idea the stories the building held.

Originally a mansion, by the end 19th century, the building had been abandoned (later to be turned into tenement housing) due to the yellow fever outbreak of 1871 in which wealthy proteños fled San Telmo for the more northern barrios.

As renovations on the property began, it became apparent that El Zanjón de Granados was one of the most important archeological sites in Buenos Aires. Beneath its foundations, workers found tunnels from the old city, founded in 1536, but lost for over 400 years.

Now a sprawling, beautifully renovated complex, El Zanjón de Granados is the perfect event space. A blend of modern design mixed with historical architecture, the building offers a fascinating glimpse into five centuries of urban archaeology as the backdrop for your next occasion.

Day by Day / 3

Option 2. Farewell Dinner & Tango Show at La Ventana

In the heart of San Telmo neighborhood, La Ventana Tango opened its doors to the world in 1982. This fully restored historic tenement is a classic walk-through Buenos Aires culture through time.

Their proposal counts with 32 artists on stage: two tango orchestras, a set of folk music, dancers and singers.

The menu includes international and local dishes of our country, with traditional grill and a large menu of Argentine wines.

Day by Day / 3

Option 3. Farewell Dinner & Tango Show at Cafe De Los Angelitos

Talking about Rivadavia and Rincón is talking about a corner of tango, about the Café de los Angelitos, about the morning, midday, afternoon and night of the most traditional coffee house of Buenos Aires.

From Monday to Monday, this emblematic meeting place for outstanding national celebrities from culture, politics, sports and arts, is proud to open its doors to receive new visitors.

With a series of 350 especially selected photographs placed on its walls, a stage box where, at some moment during the day, a live large accordion can be heard, and a moderate and elegant decoration, it will recreate the atmosphere and the environment of the 20th century for the visitors.

IGUAZU

One of the most enchanting, awe-inspiring locations on the entire planet, the Iguazú Falls are simply astonishing! A collection of 275 separate waterfalls, spanning over 2 miles (3 kilometers), experiencing the sheer majesty falls - the power and noise of the rushing water - is something that cannot be forgotten!

Located close to Puerto Iguazú on the Argentinian side of the border, and Foz do Iguazú on the Brazilian side, a trek to these majestic falls - a UNESCO World Heritage Site - doesn't mean you have to forgo the comforts of home. A perfect balance between cosmopolitan and rustic, both cities feature a wide array of amenities, including delicious, world-class cuisine, exciting nightlife, and luxurious hotels!

Day by Day / 4

Day 4 - Arrivals to Iguazu

AM Transfers to Buenos Aires Domestic airport to take flight to Iguazu

Arrival to Iguazu & Transfer to Belmond hotel.

Option 1. Check in at Belmond Das Cataratas Hotel

Belmond Hotel das Cataratas, offering guests stunning views, first-class amenities, and exclusive access to Iguazu Falls, is quite simply one of the finest hotels in all of Foz do Iguazu.

Belmond Hotel das Cataratas, featuring 195 guest rooms, all sumptuously decorated in Portuguese colonial splendor, is the only hotel located within the Iguazu National Park and enjoys an unrivaled location - just yards from the majestic falls.

Día a Día / 4

Option 2 - Meliá Iguazú Hotel

Meliá Iguazú is the only hotel located within the Iguazú National Park with spectacular views of the Iguazú Falls. It is within walking distance of nature's most fantastic creation.

The hotel offers Superior Jungle View or Falls View rooms, fully equipped and tastefully decorated.

This hotel offers five function rooms, totaling 10,764 square feet, making it the ideal hotel for conferences, conventions, and smaller business or social events. Its capacity is up to 350 in banquet style and 450 in reception style.

Day by Day / 4

Arrival Lunch at Ipe Grill Restaurant

Ideally situated in the beautiful Hotel Das Cataratas, Ipe Grill is a delicious poolside eatery, featuring some of the finest Brazilian cuisine to be found in all of Foz do Iguaçu.

A traditional Brazilian restaurant in every sense, Ipe Grill is renowned for its popular “gaucho” style barbecue, which showcases only the most tender cuts of meat, accompanied by hot, local side dishes. There is also an extensive buffet, with a wide selection of salads, local and international dishes, and classic Brazilian desserts.

PM - Brazilian Side of the Falls

Iguaçu Falls, located in the lush, majestic Iguazu National Park is undoubtedly one of the natural wonders of the world. Composed of 275 different waterfalls, this unique, almost freakish feature of the landscape was designated a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Experience these enchanting waterfalls from the Brazilian side of Iguazu. Within this breathtaking, awe-inspiring natural setting, visitors are seemingly overwhelmed, as the rush of water, the vibrant jungle, and the tropical scents attack their every sense.

Day by Day / 4

Macuco Safari Adventure

Experience the majesty and sheer force of Iguazu Falls first hand, with a magical boat trip with Macuco Safari!

Your unforgettable tour begins with environmentally friendly vehicles taking you through the vibrant, lush forests of Iguazu National Park.

From there you will come face to face with the power of Mother Nature, as you travel by boat under the waterfall called "Salto do Macuco." Lifejackets and safety equipment will be provided at the dock before departure.

Day by Day / 4

Cocktail at the lawn in front of the falls

A wow location just in front of the falls and at Belmond Hotel. You'll enjoy some cocktail drinks and canapes with a perfect location to give you the proper welcome

Day by Day / 5

Day 5 - Argentinian Side

Argentinian Side of the Falls with train to Devil's Throat

Most of the falls which comprise Iguazu Falls are located in the Argentine territory. As such, the majority of the catwalks are also located on this side, from which you can get up close to some of the most enchanting, and exciting natural sites in the world; including the famed "Devil's Throat," at 260 feet (80 meters) tall, is the largest falls in Iguazú!

Day by Day / 5

Optional - Private Cocktail & Drinks at Devil's Throat

Once the park closes its doors we'll take the private train to Devil's throat. Upon arrival we'll first walk through the catwalks until we arrive to the imposing Devil's throat where a private cocktail will be waiting for us.

Day by Day / 5

BBQ Dinner under the stars at Belmond Hotel gardens

A gastronomic experience inherited by the region's Indians, Tupi-Guarani takes place in the Hotel's garden or on the slope, with local ingredients, roasted by the heat of the ember and not by direct fire, it cooks them slowly and exposes its natural and succulent flavors. We offer three options that differ according to the cuts of meat and side dishes.

Day by Day / 6

Day 6 - Overflight the falls

AM Helicopter ride over the falls

Iguazú Falls is a location unlike any other. Experience the majesty and sheer scale of one of the planet's most awe-inspiring sites, with a private helicopter tour! Available from Foz do Iguaçu, on the Brazilian side, a personal ride over Iguazu Falls in a state of the art helicopter is the perfect way to create unforgettable memories of this beautiful wonder!
